One Hundred First Annual

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

COMMENCEMENT CEREMONY

The exercises of the one hundred and first annual commencement are enacted today at the University of Kentucky. The counterpart of the pageantry is enacted each year on campuses all over the world. It is the solemn climax and recognition of the graduates' years of study and preparation for responsibility.

The following description of the academic pageantry is provided for your interest.

PROCESSION

The procession, which forms on the Avenue of Champions, will enter the Coliseum through the south entrance. It is led by the University Marshal and followed by the Color Guard carrying the National and State flags and the University banner. The University Marshal is bearing the ceremonial mace, emblematic of the authority of the State and the University. Led by Student Marshals the candidates march behind the identification banner of the respective colleges which recommended them for their degrees.

The order of march is as follows:

The candidates for advanced degrees, to include

College of Law

College of Medicine

College of Dentistry

The candidates for degrees:

College of Arts and Sciences

College of Agriculture

College of Engineering

College of Education

College of Business and Economics

College of Pharmacy

College of Nursing

School of Architecture

School of Allied Health Professions

School of Home Economics

As the candidates reach their seats, the members of the faculty of the University of Kentucky march into the Coliseum wearing the colorful hoods of the colleges and universities from which they were graduated. The climax of the procession brings to the platform the Trustees of the University, the Deans of the various colleges, honorary degree recipients, alumni award recipients, Philip D. and Elsie O. Sang award recipient, Sullivan award recipients, Corning Glass award recipient, the Vice Presidents, guests, state officials, and finally the President of the University. As a badge of the office the President wears a medallion emblematic of the history of the State and of the University. The Trustees of the University can be identified by their blue gowns with white panels. They wear blue caps with blue tassels.

ACADEMIC ATTIRE

All candidates for degrees and those who hold these degrees, including University officials, faculty, and visiting dignitaries, are attired in traditional cap and gown. The basic color for most caps and gowns is formal black. However, recipients of different degrees wear distinctive tassels on their caps (called mortarboards), and hoods, draped down the back of the gowns, of various hues.

CAPS

Candidates for Bachelors' or Masters' degrees wear the regulation cap with the tassel appropriate to the school or division from which they are being graduated, with the exception of those who already hold Doctors' degrees and are privileged to wear gold tassels. Except during the positioning of the Colors, the playing of the National anthem, and prayers, men in academic regalia are requested to wear their caps. The authorized list of tassels follows:

Arts and Sciences—Black	Medicine—Green
Agriculture—Maize	Nursing—Apricot
Engineering—Orange	Dentistry—Lilac
Law—Purple	Architecture—Brown
Education—Light Blue	Allied Health Professions—Light Green
Business and Economics—Drab	Home Economics—Maroon
Pharmacy—Olive Green

GOWNS

The gown for the Bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves. It is designed to be worn closed. The gown for the Master's degree has an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist, like the others. The sleeve base hangs down in the traditional manner. The rear part of its oblong shape is square cut and the front part has an arc cut away. The gown is designed and supplied with fasteners so that it may be worn open or closed. The gown for the Doctor's degree has a bell-shaped sleeve on which are three velvet bars (usually black but sometimes other colors depending on the degree).

HOODS

The Bachelor's hood is rather short with a narrow velvet edging of the appropriate color (see list under tassels) and a lining in the color or colors of the institution—blue and white at Kentucky.

The Master's hood is considerably longer, has a wider velvet edging, and exposes more of the lining. The outside velvet trim color designates the degree which the person is receiving.

The Doctor's hood is easily recognized by the width of the velvet edging, the wide panels at either side, the greater length, and the full exposure of the lining. The colors of the edging most frequently seen are blue for philosophy, green for medicine, and purple for laws; the colors for the honorary Doctors' degrees are purple for laws, white for letters, and golden yellow for science.

Candidates for honorary degrees do not wear the hood until after the degree has been conferred; part of the ceremony of admitting a candidate to his honorary degree consists in his being formally invested with the hood.

CITATIONS FOR HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

DOCTOR OF LAWS DEGREE

Philip David Sang—philanthropist, bibliographer, and business executive; his concern that America not lose its heritage of manuscript treasure reveals his veneration for the Nation's lodestar of human dignity; his determination that documents, books, and other scholarly riches be preserved has benefited both libraries and individual scholars across America; his regard for the importance of selfless dedication to teaching should help each of us renew our own veneration for the priceless relationship between student and professor.

Bell Irvin Wiley—teacher and historian; his career prompts this University to deem him one of its ablest sons, his scholarship has brought him to respected academic positions in both America and Great Britain; his many books and other publications have enriched our generation's understanding of this Nation's past; his distinction as a lecturer reveals talents of an order all too rare, so that countless audiences have been inspired to think deeply about the age of our Civil War; his leadership as a professional historian marks him a statesman of academe.

Clarence Robertson Yeager—industrialist, civic leader, diligent alumnus, University of Kentucky Development Council Chairman; though he has dwelt far from this campus and this Commonwealth, he has never been distant in spirit; his many services to the advancement of this University have been extraordinary; men of his commitment are increasingly essential if modern scholarship is to have broadened appreciation and requisite support; his career exemplifies a deep affection between the world of affairs and the world of learning, a mutual respect which deserves emulation.

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE DEGREE

Robert Henry Baker—chemist and academic leader; he graced this campus both as student and faculty member; his fine scholarly work in the physical sciences did not deter his efforts to strengthen the management of learning; his brilliant contributions as Dean of the Graduate School at Northwestern University have not been confined to that great campus; graduate education across this Nation and far beyond it has been improved by the efforts of this Kentuckian.

James Augustine Shannon—physician, scholar, and administrator; few men in America have done more for progress in instruction and research among the medical and related health fields; his career in the scholarship of physiology at New York University is memorable; his distinguished leadership for nearly two decades of the National Institutes of Health is respected across this Nation; our campus joins numerous others in gratitude for his guidance; the well-being of America's public has profited from the endeavors of this man.

This charge and the pledge which follows were written by Dr. Frank L. McVey, President of the University of Kentucky from 1917 to 1940. Each graduating class since 1917 has heard the charge and taken the accompanying pledge.

Charge to the Graduating Class

On this Commencement day you stand in a new relation to the University, to the State and to Life. The University that has given you of its store of learning looks upon you as its sons and daughters. The State now conceives of you as citizens, well prepared to do your part in the government, development and guidance of the Commonwealth.

If what you have learned while here has given you larger intellectual interests, and widened your powers of understanding, the University feels a part of its duty done, and if in the doing character has become your possession and a part of your moral fiber, the State is satisfied with its investment of men and money.

The University trusts you have learned to approach problems with open minds, to set aside prejudice in your judgment of men and affairs. It hopes that you will shun evil in all its forms and be ready to strive for what is right.

May you have in your declining years, material comfort, the respect of your fellow citizens, the feeling of work well done, and a spiritual and intellectual interest in human life.

Meantime, the University's honor is your honor. In your acts and deeds you now reflect your heritage. To your fellow man, the University is measured by your character, by your deeds, by the company you keep. It is in this spirit that the University calls upon you to be true to the larger things of life, to be men and women of courage, integrity, sympathy, and gentleness.

By the granting of the degree you have been admitted to the fraternity of letters, and to the larger fellowship of the University. It is right and fitting that you should stand and solemnly raising your right hand repeat this pledge with me:

The Pledge

In the presence of this audience, citizens of the Commonwealth and members of the University, with a strong sense of my responsibility, I promise to hold my degree so no loss will come to it through my holding, to regard it as a claim upon my loyalty to Alma Mater and to pledge myself to the service of God and my fellow man.

In testimony of your conduct and purpose, the University Senate recommending, the Board of Trustees of the University has conferred upon you the Diploma of the University of Kentucky, confirmed and acknowledged by the great Seal of the University.

ALMA MATER*

Hail Kentucky, Alma Mater!
Loyal sons and daughters sing;
Sound her praise with voice united;
To the breeze her colors fling.
To the blue and white be true;
Badge triumphant age on age;
Blue, the sky that o'er us bends;
White, Kentucky's stainless page.

Hail thee ever, old Kentucky!
Glorious is thy heritage;
Proud thy name and thy traditions;
Proud thy place on history's page!
May we ne'er forget thy fame
Mother of the great and free;
May we 'er uphold thy name,
Old Kentucky, hail to thee!

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

Oh Say! can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that Star-spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?
